Thanks to Pete Locke I was made an Octojazzarian at my recent Birthday Bash in May

------------------	--

Thank you to everyone, particularly Pete Locke, for making my Birthday Celebration so enjoyable. I was made an OCTOJAZZARIAN by Pete who designed a sweat shirt with scenes of my playing career. Also on the night, all the proceeds, raffle, door takings and individual donations were donated to Velindre Hospital, which made £ 360, in memory of Geoff Palser and Norman Thatcher, who were treated at the Hospital.

Also, in May, one of my favourite bands, The Sopranos, appeared to round off my celebrations, These, and other sessions have been filmed by Paul, which can be viewed by entering "Paul Dunleavy" without the quotes, into YouTube. There are also some good videos of this year's bands at the Breda Jazz Festival which you may enjoy.

Coming Up is Upton Jazz Festival

Some of our local musicians will be there

Thurs 27th Black Cat Jazz playing Under the Bridge from 5:30 – 10:30

Saturday 29th The Louisville Parade Band led by Ceri Williams

Saturday 29th The Louisville Jass Quartet again led by Ceri with Zoe Lambert Mike Kennedy and Sarah Thatcher.

Sunday 30th New Orleans Heat

There's stack of info on the Upton website :- <https://www.uptonjazz.co.uk>

Our Programme

11th June:- Hot Club Gallios.

Django Style outfit, excellent acoustic guitars of Luke Archard, Richard Jones, and Mike Morgan bass and vocals. Unfortunately Xenia is indisposed and the group will play as a trio.

18th June :- The Wessex New Orleans Band

A return visit for this popular band, with John Minnion, John Scantlebury, Pete Locke, Sarah Thatcher, Pete Berry and Mike Pearce.

25th June Phil Wall's Jazz Band

Phil Wall on reeds is joined by Pete Locke, Vic Partridge and Steve Davis

2nd July:- Ron King's Rhythm Aces

Ron and his colleagues join us for another session. With Ron on trumpet and mouth organ, Andy Leggett reeds, Pete Mathison guitar, Mike Kennedy bass and Jane Williams vocal.

8th July:- Grangetown Bumps.

Our friends from the Birmingham area join us for another session, with Dave Wood, reeds, Stan Stephens, trombone with Sarah Thatcher and Mike Kennedy.

16th July:- The Final Slide

With Paul Munnery moving up North, it will probably be the last time for Pete and Paul to have a blow together, let's hope not. They will be joined by Keith Little, Vic Partridge and Roy Cansdale.

23rd July All That Jazz

John Foley with his excellent band of musician playing Jazz standards as well as popular tunes of the period

30th July NOLA LEGACY

This is the name conjured up by Roy Davies for his Quartet, with Roy on banjo, John Scantlebury, Ceri Williams and Mike Gale. Roy has played with lads individually but not as a band – sounds interesting!

Attendance at Café Jazz

As you are most probably aware, we have been making a loss on virtually every presentation at Café Jazz, for the last couple of months. A situation we regret, but cannot continue for ever. We have taken steps to try and reverse this, but we cannot do so without YOUR SUPPORT.

We try and put on a varied programme with something to suit everyone. We are fortunate to have a city centre location with friendly staff and management committed to proving music seven nights a week.

So please, if you want the “club” to continue we need you to come along as often as you can. Hope to see you soon.
