The attendance at Café Jazz has not improved since the last issue, but firstly I must thank those loyal “fans” who turn up week after week whatever the weather or style of music. It is their dedication that makes us want to continue at café Jazz for as long as possible. We are still losing money and the situation will be reviewed toward the end of August when we will have to seriously consider our future. Let's look on the bright side and hope that audience figures pick up a little.

Out & About Paul, Rose and I visited “Friends of Upton”

The Fryer - Barnhart International All Star Jazz Band put on a great show to a packed house at Hanley Castle School, Upton upon Severn on the 16th May. With a line up of George Huxley, clarinet and Sax, Gordon Whitworth, trumpet and Jim Fryer trombone and cornet. Annie Hawkings, bass, Nick Ward, Drums and Mr Mellors, Banjo and guitar with the dynamic Jeff Barnhart on piano.

Added guests for two numbers were Caz Shennington on vocal and Richard Leach on trombone. The notable ‘spoons’ a local phenomenon accompanied Jeff Barnhart on piano with metronome precision. One of the many highlights was Ann Barnhart on Flute with a delightful rendition of Summertime accompanied by her husband Jeff on the schools Broadwood piano. When Jeff and Ann visited us at the Café Jazz last year they put on a similar superb show. The lucky audience at Upton saw it themselves for the first time and were bowled over!

Some forthcoming events at Upton are which not to be missed are the 23rd Oliver Cromwell International Jazz Festival, 27th, 28th, 29th June.

July 11th The Red Hot Rhythmakers from Australia

July 25th Bob Barnard, the wonderful cornet player from Australia with the Martin Litton Quintet.

August 22nd Spirit of Colyer concert with our friends Norman & Sarah Thatcher, Brian Carrick and Ray Smith plus others notables.

September 25th Rossano Sportiello the brilliant Italian pianist with Dave Green, bass and Steve Brown, drums P.D.

Late news – Pat Halcox has announced he is retiring after 54 years with the Chris Barber Band - see <http://www.chrisbarber.net/>

Please do your best to support us at Café Jazz – We Need You !!

The 'TEN GREAT JAZZ PIANISTS' Puzzle

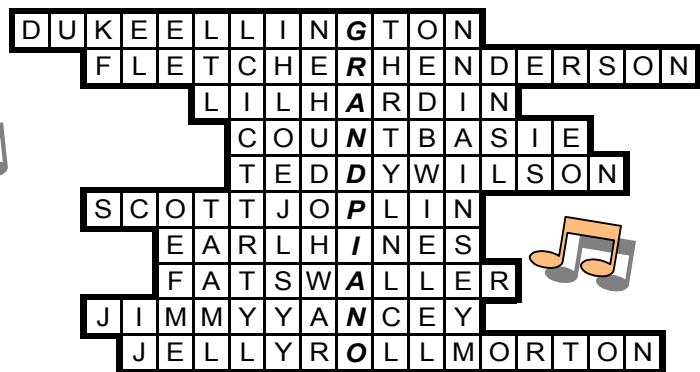

For those readers who didn't manage to solve Pete's puzzles in the last issue of the "Foot Tappers News" here are the solutions:

The Pianists were :-

Fats Waller, Fletcher Henderson, Count Basie
Jelly Roll Morton, Lil Hardin, Duke Ellington
Scot Joplin, Teddy Wilson, Earl Hines
Jimmy Yancey

The correct way to fit the names into the second grid was .

... revealing the answer written down the centre "GRANDPIANO"

(In case you can't find the other three pianists they're in there somewhere George Shearing, Dill Jones and Tommy Burton – all British of course).

Many Thanks Pete for the puzzle I'm sure everyone enjoyed doing it You can see and Hear Pete at Café Jazz on 22nd July with the Memphis Six and on 5th August with the Keith Little Band.

Keith's Band will be appearing at Brecon, with their guest Roy Williams on Sunday 10th August as part of the 25th Year Festival – to my knowledge Pete has appeared at every one, as I have. – must be legends in our own lunchtime.

Café Jazz Line up

We are always on the look out for new bands and over the next two months we feature the "Scantlebury – Lewis All Stars" Line up is unknown at the moment but a treat for New Orleans fans – not to be missed.

On the 29th July a NEW band to Café Jazz with two new faces, The band is called "The Slick City Six" and is led by clarinettist Jeff Matthews. On trumpet & vocal, Stan Williams from North Wales and trombone Stan Slater (ex Syd Lawrence). Local rhythm section of Alan Johnson gtr, Keith Tolley bass and Mac Cambay drums. Style, anything from Traditional to Swing – should be a most enjoyable evening. I can hear it now – who's Jeff Matthews ? – well he's the younger clarinet player with the Workhouse Band, and he's good.!
